BIG MINSTRELS AND GOOD TREMENDOUS CROWDS

The biggest crowd that ever happened at the Airdome on a Monday night was in attendance last night, and a more pleased lot of people never got together, the very evidence that New Mexico is enjoying good times, and we are on the verge of a boom followed by steady growth for statehood is going to happen, the black cat going in the right direction, the Airdome has proved for statehood for a year, and the very fact that anything the Airdome promises it happens. It is the busy spot of Albuquerque. Why? Because we are for the people, the people have made our success and we never tire of trying to please them. Go tonight with the boozing crowds. MAYOR PROPOSES CITY COUNCIL DISPOSES

Appointments Again Fail of Confirmation When Aldermen Stand Together on the Party Vote.

Demonstrating that the "Big Six" combination has not changed even a little bit in its determination to stand together on the proposition of appointments, the city council last night rejected the offerings of Mayor J. W. Elder, who named Dr. G. S. McLandress as city physician in place of Dr. S. L. Burton; M. E. Hickey, as city attorney in place of H. J. Cotters and A. C. Burtt as chief of the fire department in place of J. Kishan.

The procedure varied but little from that of two weeks ago, when the mayor appointed the first time McLandress, Hickey and Burtt. The council rejected the appointments at that time in a vote of 8 to 7, last night one more Democratic alderman was on the bar and the score was 6 to 2 in favor of the firm of Burton, Cotters and Klein.

Upon recommendation of the three committee the mayor appointed Edward Dominguez as a fireman, vice Forness Pennington, resigned, and also appointed J. A. Salazar as a policeman, vice J. A. Montoya, suspended. Both appointments were confirmed. Salazar was a member of the police force several years ago.

Chairman Angie of the police committee addressed the council with reference to the charges pending against Policeman Brosse, preferred by Emil Mann. Mr. Angie explained that he had interviewed Mr. Mann several times, but that Mann had failed to bring forward the necessary witnesses to prove his contentions upon motion of Alderman Wright, a resolution was adopted, providing that Mann fails to appear no charges before the next meeting of the city council the policeman be acquitted.

Following the council meeting last night the police committee held a session at which the charges made against Night Marshal Patrick O'Conor were heard. The charges were preferred by J. A. Montoya, recently dismissed from the service. Montoya failed to bring forward any witnesses and the police committee dismissed the charges against O'Conor, exonerating him entirely.

PLAN CELEBRATIONS ALAMOGORDO JAIL FOR JULY FOURTH PRISONERS MAKE ESCAPE

Number of Towns of Territory Will Hold Festivities in Commemoration of Nation's Independence.

Several more towns have entered the already crowded field of Independence day celebration, and in nearly every town large enough to be worthy of the name, throughout the territory, a committee has been appointed and placed in charge of the festivities. The Gray Record says:

"A Fourth of July celebration for Grady is now an assured reality. A mass meeting of enthusiastic citizens of Grady and the near communities met at the school house Monday evening, the several different committees composed of real live wires, were appointed who will see to it that this Fourth will be the best yet held on the plains."

"The men cut their way out of the steel cell in which they were confined, with saws and improvised case knives, then worked their way through the ceiling and iron shooting roof and then lowered themselves to the ground with strips of heavy clothing and pieces of rope which they had tied together before leaving their cell."

The men were still pursuing M. Connors and Thomas Burns, jail prisoners, who escaped from the county jail mere Tuesday night.
